THE INNOCENT CONVICTS

(TIC), a registered 501 (c)(3) nonprofit dedicated to social justice, public service, and human rights. Through the use of documentary films, social media campaigns, special events, education, and public discourse, we work to represent the broad interests of the victims and families of those wrongfully convicted.

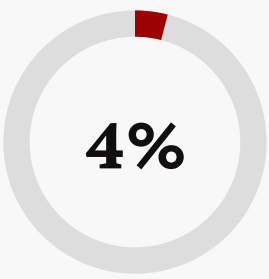
TIC works collaboratively with other innocence organizations to identify and bring attention to cases meriting review for wrongful conviction. In addition, we provide services such as general outreach, behavioral health care for those impacted by wrongful convictions, litigation assistance for the exonerated, and the promotion of bills and other legislation.

Currently, TIC receives numerous requests for post-conviction case reviews and navigation on a weekly basis.



A conservative estimate is that >4% of those sentenced to die are innocent

We need any help. We need your help.

We can work together to build a more equitable society for all.

Perhaps you are a lawyer (both Federal and State) just beginning your practice or a student attorney and hoping to do some pro bono work. Maybe you are interested in social media, filmmaking, investigative journalism, or law enforcement. Regardless of your interest, you can help. We need mentors & can also provide mentors. You do not need experience and we can tailor your training to suit YOUR needs. Join our team so that you can make an impact on the lives of others while enriching yourself.
